

Economic Geology Day I

The first annual meeting, bringing together industry, research, governmental organisations and students that are working with or are interested in ore geology, exploration and mining

Friday the 2nd December 2011

09:30 - approx. 18:00

GEUS

Øster Voldgade 10

Theodor Sorgenfrei Auditorium

Please register by sending an email to jkol@geus.dk

Deadline: the 24.11.2011

Program
Time	Title	Presenter	Chair
9:30-10:00	Welcome	Flemming Getreuer Christiansen - GEUS
10:00-10:30	Economic geology research in the geological survey and its relation and relevance to universities and industry	Jochen Kolb - GEUS
10:30-11:00	What can geological institutes provide for mineral exploration and what form of collaborations are required?	Thomas Ulrich - Aarhus University	Stefan Bernstein
11:00-11:15	Break
11:15-11:45	What to hunt for in Greenland and how we do it	Stefan Bernstein - Avannaa Resources Ltd.
11:45-12:15	Presentation of 21st NORTH	Anders Lie - 21st NORTH
12:15-12:30	SRK ES. This is what we do	Casper Mejer Petersen - SRK Exploration Services Limited Sponsored by Avannaa Resources Ltd.	Jochen Kolb
12:30-13:30	Lunch break
13:30-14:00	New in exploration	Pelle Gulbrandsen - Avannaa Resources Ltd.
14:00-14:30	Scandinavian Highlands in the landscape of northern European economic geology	Jeroen van Gool - Scandinavian Highlands
14:30-14:45	Mineral potential mapping	Bo M. Stensgaard - GEUS
14:45-15:00	Photogrammetry and 3D modelling	Pierpaolo Guarnieri - GEUS	Anders Lie
15:00-15:15	Break
15:15-15:35	Titanium ores: Research and development partnership between GEUS and Dupont over more than a decade	Christian Knudsen - GEUS
15:35-15:55	Gold mineralization in southern West Greenland - GEUS-BMP-KU MSc project	Anders Bergen - GEUS, Copenhagen University
15:55-16:15	The Maniitsoq structure, West Greenland: Possible deep-crustal economic geological implications of impacting	Adam Garde - GEUS	Thomas Ulrich
16:15-16:30	Break
16:30-end	Panel discussion: How can we establish a better network and better collaboration? What could be the way into the future? Is there a future for such a meeting?	Jochen Kolb, Stefan Bernstein, Thomas Ulrich, N.N. - Beer sponsored by 21st NORTH, SRK Exploration Services Limited	Per Kalvig

